A NEW FACE... Proudly displaying a new look today is the former Roth's Market at 1321 Post Ave., now part of the large Fox chain. Eldon Griffis (inset) is manager of the new Fox store and has announced that grand opening specials will be featured throughout the store this week end. (Herald Photo)

Grand Opening Scheduled as Fox Youth Band Takes Over Roth Market Stores

An event of double importance is being offered families in the Torrance and Hawthorne areas today when the curtain is being raised on two new supermarkets recently acquired from the Roth chain by the Fox Market chain. The two stores in this area at 1321 Post Ave. in downtown

Youth Band Group Makes Final Appeal

Torrance, and at 105 Hawthorne Blvd. in Hawthorne, will now be operated as part of the 3-market group of the Fox chain. A special grand opening program has been scheduled for this change into the group, according to a company spokesman. Big values will be featured in all departments throughout the chain.

Top Quality In line with its usual policy, it is the intention of the Fox organization to offer only top quality merchandise and the finest selection of nationally advertised name brands, the spokesman said. Interior improvements have also been made in the two markets to provide greater shopping convenience and comfort. Following the practice of all Fox markets in the chain, the new stores will give valuable S&H Green Stamps to all customers, according to Edwin J. Fox, president of the chain. Store personnel will remain the same, with Eldon Griffis and Larry Schropp as directors of the two markets. They will be backed by a large staff of qualified assistants who will help them welcome former Roth shoppers along with future customers at Fox.
